

ALLAH YAR FROTAN

Medical Doctor | Health & Nutrition Program Coordination

Kabul, Afghanistan | +93766462006 | alfrotan@gmail.com

TARGET ROLE

Medical Officer — FMIC/HR/571 | French Medical Institute for Mothers and Children (FMIC), Kabul

CLINICAL & PROFESSIONAL STRENGTHS

- Clinical Assessment & Diagnosis
- Diagnosis & Treatment
- SAM / Inpatient Nutrition Care
- Infection Prevention & Control
- HMIS / Health Data Quality
- Health & Nutrition Supervision
- Emergency & Outbreak Response
- Stakeholder Coordination

VERIFIED MEDICAL BASIS

- MD, Curative Medicine
- Medical registration/license
- Medical Exit Exam completed

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Medical Doctor with verified MD education, medical professional registration/license, and completed Medical Exit Exam. Verified experience includes SAM clinical care in a Therapeutic Feeding Unit, supervision of mobile health and nutrition teams, HMIS/DHIS2 data quality, infection prevention training, and coordination with Ministry of Public Health and partner stakeholders. Native Dari/Persian speaker with fluent English and intermediate Pashto.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Action Against Hunger (ACF-International)

May 2023 – Jul 2025

TFU Medical Doctor & Safeguarding Focal Point

Sang-e-Takht TFU, Daikundi

- Delivered clinical assessment, diagnosis, treatment, and follow-up care for children with SAM using WHO, IMAM/CMAM, and national clinical protocols.
- Maintained accurate HMIS records and supported data quality while serving as Safeguarding Focal Point for PSEA and child protection.

Action Against Hunger (ACF-International)

Feb 2022 – Dec 2022

Health and Nutrition Supervisor

Gizab & Sang-e-Takht, Daikundi

- Supervised mobile health and nutrition teams delivering community-based BPHS/EPHS-related services.
- Supported field health and nutrition service delivery with verified IMAM/CMAM program knowledge.

Daikundi Provincial Public Health Directorate

Oct 2020 – Dec 2020

Medical Doctor / COVID-19 Rapid Response Team Leader

Daikundi, Afghanistan

- Coordinated with Ministry of Public Health representatives, provincial health authorities, and partner organizations during the COVID-19 emergency response.

FMIC APPLICATION FOCUS

This CV is tailored to the Medical Officer vacancy FMIC/HR/571 using verified clinical, infection-prevention, HMIS, and health-program coordination evidence only.

ALLAH YAR FROTAN

Medical Doctor | Health & Nutrition

+93766462006

alfrotan@gmail.com

EDUCATION & CREDENTIALS

EDUCATION

MD, Curative Medicine
Kabul Medical Science University |
2013–2020

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATION

Verified medical professional registration/license

MEDICAL EXIT EXAM

Completed Medical Exit Exam

LANGUAGES

Dari/Persian Native

English Fluent

Pashto Intermediate

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE CONTINUED

Daikundi Governor's Office

Dec 2020 – Aug 2021

Public Relations & Communications Advisor

Daikundi, Afghanistan

- Supported communication and coordination between provincial government departments, NGOs, communities, and development partners.

Trend for a Better Tomorrow (TBT) – NGO

May 2019 – Sep 2019

Administrative and Finance Officer

Afghanistan

- Supported administrative operations, procurement processes, financial documentation, and program logistics.

CERTIFICATIONS & TRAINING

Safeguarding & PSEA — ACF (2024)

Infection Prevention & Control (IPC)
— ACF (2023)

HMIS Reporting & Health Data
Management — ACF (2023)

IMAM, IMNCI, IYCF & Stock
Management — ACF (2022)

VERIFIED EVIDENCE SNAPSHOT

- TFU clinical assessment, diagnosis, treatment, and follow-up care for children with SAM.
- Mobile health and nutrition team supervision in community-based BPHS/EPHS-related services.
- HMIS records, DHIS2/HMIS data quality, and health reporting training.
- MoPH, provincial health authority, NGO, community, and development-partner coordination.

DOCUMENT SCOPE

Prepared for FMIC/HR/571 using verified profile evidence only.